Aging in oak barrels and barriques French for 24 months, with frequent tastings for evaluate the right time of aging. Bottling 3 years after the harvest.

TASTING NOTES

Compact and brilliant ruby red color. A rare wine depth, complex and fine. Its intense aromas and elegant red fruits, black cherries, currants and blueberries, they take away space for a subtle and graceful roasting. In the mouth enters generous, fresh but with velvety and sinuous tannins. It is balanced, intense, persistent and fine.

FOOD PAIRING

Ideal with hearty first and second courses, not bad with grilled red meats.
