WINEMAKING

Various methods of ageing in oak barrels; slightly faster than Ruby.

Because the oxidation process, the color of port wine is acquired slowly, initially slightly orange hues and advancement while reaching the dark golden amber shades. This style of port wine is aged in old oak barrels for 10 years.

TASTING NOTES

During aging, the wine's color gradually becomes deep amber feature, "tawny", and slowly develops complex flavors and opulent palate, velvety soft and deliciously sweet. Opulent and elegant, combining delicate old wood notes and rich ripe fruit flavors.

FOOD PAIRING

Perfect accompanying pie with walnuts, roasted chestnuts and chestnut cake, raisins, dried fruit, mousse au chocolat and Creme Brûlée.
